CHAMBER DIVISION PROFILES & VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES:

The Chamber's work is divided into four areas of action represented by divisions.
Numerous volunteer opportunities exist for interested Chamber members within these divisions.

Business Assistance & Activities Division

Provides networking opportunities and business development activities for member businesses. Committees include planning for events, such as the Golf Outing, and education and training programs.

Membership Development Division

Responsible for the continued growth and well-being of the Chamber membership, cost-saving benefit programs, volunteer network, and communications activities. Committees include membership development, communications, and Ambassadors. Short term opportunities for volunteers to assist with membership.

Public Affairs Division

Works to ensure a positive governmental policy, political, and legislative climate for business growth and development; also focuses on community/economic development and provides leadership training opportunities. Committees include Community/Economic Development and Government Action.

Education & Workforce Development Division

Organized to support workforce development and business education programs in the community. Committees include Business & Education Partnership. Short term opportunities for volunteers to assist with leadership programming.

YES! I would like to volunteer with the Bay Area Chamber of Commerce!
